

HOME WARRANTY

AFC Home Club is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Georgia.

THIS IS NOT A PRODUCT OF INSURANCE: Obligations of the provider under this service member are backed by the full faith and credit of the provider.

DIAMOND CONTRACT

A. COVERAGE OVERVIEW

Systems and components mentioned as "Covered" in the terms and conditions of this contract will be included for coverage so long as the systems and components meet the following criteria:

1. Your contract term (the dates that your contract is in effect), your contract fee, your Diagnostic Fee, and your equipment, systems, and appliances covered under this contract, are set forth in your coverage details. The first 30 days following the purchase date (the date upon which AFC receives initial payment) constitute the waiting period (see #5 below). Coverage becomes effective on the 31st day after the contract's purchase date and continues through the expiration date shown on the Declaration Page. Any service request(s) placed after the expiration date listed on the declaration page will be denied unless the contract has been renewed prior to the expiration date.
2. All covered items must have been in good working order upon the effective date of the contract. "Mechanical failure" occurs when a covered item becomes inoperable and unable to perform its designed function, subject to the limitations and conditions set forth herein. Current systems and appliances covered must be located inside the main foundation (except for pool/spa, well pump and air conditioner), and must be in proper working order on the effective date of this home warranty contract. They must have been maintained as specified by manufacturer's requirements and recommendations. They must have been properly sized and installed to meet federal, state, and local regulations as well as manufacturer specifications and industry codes and standards. Known or unknown pre-existing conditions are not covered. This coverage is for one appliance/system unless otherwise stated below.
3. This contract covers single-family homes (including manufactured homes), new construction homes, condominiums, townhomes, and mobile homes under 5,000 square feet, unless the appropriate fee is applied and paid. Coverage is for occupied property that is owned or rented, not commercial property or premises converted into a business. Short-term rentals or leases, including but not limited to platforms such as Airbnb, VRBO, and similar services, are not covered under this agreement. This contract describes the basic coverage and options available. Coverage is subject to limitations and conditions specified in this contract. Please read your contract carefully.

4. The current systems and units in your home all have different life expectancy, and your contract is designed to help them reach their life expectancy. Your contract aims to provide some protection for out-of-pocket repair expenses. Coverage is not all-inclusive, and there may be situations in which you (the homeowner) will need to pay additional costs for parts or services not covered by the contract plan.
5. Unless you are a renewing Member, you will have a 30-day review period from the date of purchase. During this time, no service requests can be accepted, nor will any failures that occur during this time or prior to the purchase of the contract be covered. During this time, it is the Member's responsibility to review the Declaration Page and make sure all information is correct. It is the Member's responsibility to inform AFC if documentation is not received within 7-10 business days. AFC will not be held responsible for the Member's failure to notify AFC of unreceived paperwork. If the Member does not notify AFC to resend the contract packet, all guidelines will be held to the version published online at afchomeclub.com. To make changes to an account, please call 1-866-242-0629.
6. Items not explicitly classified as Covered or Non-Covered in the Membership Guidelines shall be deemed Non-Covered.

DEFINITIONS INDEX

For the purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them below:

1. Waiting Period: The initial period, beginning from the date of purchase, during which no claims may be made. During this period, coverage is not active, and any breakdowns occurring within this time will not be covered.
2. Covered Items: The systems, appliances, and/or optional add-ons listed on the declaration page of this Agreement, subject to the specific limits, exclusions, and conditions set forth herein.
3. Diagnostic Fee or Service Fee: The non-refundable amount that the homeowner must pay prior to dispatching a technician or utilizing their own technician to assess a system or appliance and identify any issues.
4. Exclusion: Specific items, conditions, or types of damage that are not covered under this Agreement. Exclusions define the limitations of coverage and identify which systems, appliances, or situations are not eligible for warranty benefits.

5. Maintenance: Routine care, cleaning, and servicing of systems or appliances, including regular inspections, adjustments, and minor repairs intended to prevent issues and extend the life of the item.
6. Normal Wear and Tear: The expected and natural deterioration of an asset resulting from regular, everyday use over time.
7. Pre-Existing Failure: Conditions or failures that existed prior to the commencement of the coverage period, which are excluded from coverage under this Agreement.
8. Cash-in-lieu Payment: A monetary sum provided as a substitute for repairing or replacing a Covered Item, intended to cover the value of the item in place of physical repair or replacement.
9. Waiting Period: The initial period, beginning from the date of purchase, during which no claims may be made. During this period, coverage is not active, and any breakdowns occurring within this time will not be covered.
10. Practical Service Limits: The scope of repair or replacement coverage based on the age, condition, and maintenance history of a covered item, reflecting reasonable adjustments for wear over its usable life.

B. SERVICE REQUESTS

SHOULD YOU NEED SERVICE, PLEASE READ YOUR COVERAGE CAREFULLY AND SUBMIT YOUR REQUEST THROUGH www.afchomeclub.com OR BY CALLING 770-973-2400.

1. By submitting a service request, whether online or by phone, you acknowledge and agree to the terms of service. The Member or an authorized representative must notify AFC immediately upon discovering any breakdown, provided that the breakdown occurs within the active contract term. AFC accepts service requests 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, through its online platform. Throughout the service process, AFC strongly encourages Members to take all reasonable measures to mitigate secondary damages, including but not limited to: shutting off water to the home in the event of a significant leak, discontinuing use of any item upon identification of a defect, and contacting emergency services if necessary.
2. Upon receipt of a service request, AFC will initiate service within twenty-four (24) hours. Once a technician has accepted the service appointment, AFC will provide the Member with the technician's contact information via phone, SMS text message, or email. In certain situations, the assignment of a technician may require more than forty-eight (48) hours to complete due to availability constraints.

- a. The Member will be responsible for the Diagnostic Fee (sometimes called a service fee),
A service fee is applicable for each service request that results in the dispatch of a technician, whether from AFC or a vendor of your choice. Should you opt to engage your own vendor for diagnostics and they do not impose a service fee, the service fee associated with your policy will be deducted from any approval granted. This service fee pertains solely to the technician's diagnostic evaluation of each covered system or appliance and does not cover any repair work performed. It serves as a deductible and is non-refundable.
3. AFC has the sole and absolute right to select the technician to perform the service. AFC will not reimburse for services performed without prior approval and service-request-number verification. 3.1 All members have the option to obtain their own technician. Your request for service must be submitted to AFC via phone call or online. At this time, you will have the option to "request to use own technician." All service requests must be approved prior to approving the repair. All approved technicians are required to be licensed and insured.
4. AFC requires the make, model, and serial number located on the appliance/system prior to service. In some cases, this can be found on the inspection report. If the technician is not able to locate such information or it is no longer visible, AFC will not accept a request on said appliance or system. It will not be a covered item.
 - a. If approval is granted after the membership expiration date due to delays caused by an AFC-dispatched vendor, and the member chooses a replacement, a paid receipt must be submitted within 7 days from the approval date.
 - b. Anything not listed under Covered or Non-Covered will subsequently be a Non-Covered item from the Membership Guidelines."

If an appliance or system experiences a covered failure due to normal wear and tear, AFC may, at its sole discretion, offer a cash settlement in lieu of repair or replacement. The cash amount will be determined using an independent third-party source.

MAINTENANCE

1. AFC is not liable for normal or routine maintenance or failure to perform normal or routine maintenance. Annual is defined as occurring within 12 calendar months of the service request. In order to receive service on the HVAC or tankless water heater unit when a failure is discovered during annual maintenance, the Member must provide a previous maintenance record from within the last 12 months that shows no suggested or required repairs.

3. To waive the initial 30-day waiting period, the Member must provide an inspection report to AFC. This report must reflect that the items included in the coverage were inspected and are in good working condition, with no further recommendations, inspections, or repairs by a separate technician suggested for the coverage to apply. No pre-existing conditions will be accepted.

3. Manufacturer's Warranty, Recall, or Defects: AFC will not provide service for any unit that is under a manufacturer's warranty, has been recalled, or is known to be defective. The Member is responsible for obtaining service directly from the manufacturer, as the manufacturer warranty ensures the manufacturer's responsibility for repair or replacement. AFC will not be liable for any parts or labor costs related to manufacturer-covered repairs, which must go through the manufacturer's service process. In such cases, the Member must contact the manufacturer for service.
4. AFC will not pay for repairs or replacement of any covered systems or appliances that are inoperable because of known or unknown pre-existing conditions, long-term failures, deficiencies and/or defects.
5. AFC is not liable for negligence or other conduct of the technician, nor is AFC an insurer of technician's performance. By entering an AFC contract, the Member agrees that AFC is not liable for consequential, incidental, indirect, secondary, or punitive damages. The member expressly waives the right to all such damages. The Member's sole remedy under this Agreement is recovery of the cost of the required repair or replacement, whichever is less. The Member further agrees that in no event will AFC's liability exceed $3,000.00 per contract item for access, diagnosis, and repair or replacement, unless otherwise stated by AFC.

You and AFC agree that any dispute, claim or controversy between you and AFC; or (ii) between you and other users ; or (iii) arising out of or relating to this contract in any way; or (iv) involving the existence, formation, breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation, validity, or scope of this agreement to arbitrate, shall be settled by binding arbitration administered by FairClaims (www.FairClaims.com) and not by a court or jury, in accordance with FairClaims' applicable arbitration rules and procedures effective at the time a claim is made. These rules and procedures are available at www.FairClaims.com. You further agree that judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. You consent to electronic service of process, with service to be made to the email address we have on record for your account.

Notwithstanding any choice of law or other provision in this contract you and AFC agree and acknowledge that this arbitration agreement evidences a transaction involving interstate commerce and that the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. ("FAA"), will govern its interpretation and enforcement and proceedings pursuant thereto. You acknowledge and agree that you and AFC are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class action or representative proceeding. Unless both you and AFC otherwise agree in writing, any arbitration will be conducted only on an individual basis and not in a class, collective, consolidated, or representative proceeding. However, you and AFC each retain the right to seek injunctive or other equitable relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent the actual or threatened infringement, misappropriation or violation of a party's copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets, patents or other intellectual property rights. You agree that any and all communications and evidence related to any dispute ultimately resolved by arbitration or mediation with FairClaims arising out of or relating to this contract agreement shall be held and will remain confidential, and that you will not take any action that will harm the reputation of any of the other parties to the arbitration or mediation or AFC, or which would reasonably be expected to lead to unwanted or unfavorable publicity to and of the parties, AFC or other entities involved in or incidental to the arbitration or mediation. You understand that those parties and entities include but are not limited to the claimant, respondent, witnesses, and AFC.

AWR disclaims any implied or statutory warranties other than the implied warranty of good faith and fair dealing. The duration of any implied or statutory warranty is limited to the duration of this express warranty. These limitations and disclaimers shall survive the cancellation of this Agreement. This limited warranty gives you specific legal rights. You may have other rights that vary from state to state.

26. How Will Disputes Be Resolved?

A. Definitions. This Section 26 ("Arbitration Provision") shall be broadly interpreted. As used in this Section, these terms are defined as follows:

- i. "Dispute" means any claim or controversy arising from or relating to Your relationship with AWR, for example any: (1) claims for relief or theories of liability, whether based in member, tort, statute or otherwise; (2) claims that arose before this Agreement; and (3) claims that arise after the cancellation or expiration of this Agreement. "Dispute" does not, however, include any issues relating to the scope or validity of this arbitration provision.
- ii. "You" means You and any intended or unintended beneficiaries of this Agreement.
- iii. "AWR" means AWR and any of its predecessors, successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and independent memberors, and each of their officers, directors, employees and agents.

B. Arbitration or Small Claims Court. All Disputes shall be resolved individually in either (a) binding arbitration or (b) small claims court if the claim is for money damages and the amount claimed is within the jurisdiction of that court. In arbitration, there is a neutral arbitrator rather than a judge. In arbitration and small claims court, there is no jury and there is less discovery and less appellate review than in court.

C. Procedures for Arbitration. i. This Arbitration Provision is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act. Arbitrations shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") pursuant to its Consumer Arbitration Rules (the "AAA Rules") as modified by the version of this Arbitration Provision that is in effect when a "Demand for Arbitration" is filed. The AAA Rules can be obtained from the AAA by visiting its website (www.adr.org) or calling its toll-free number (1-800-778-7879). If there is a conflict between this Arbitration Provision and the rest of this Agreement, this Arbitration Provision will govern. If there is a conflict between this Arbitration Provision and the AAA Rules, this Arbitration Provision will govern. If the AAA will not administer an arbitration in accordance with this Arbitration Provision, You and AWR will agree on (or if necessary, petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint) an arbitration organization that will do so.

ii. The party commencing an arbitration should follow the instructions on the AAA website, including sending the AAA a "Demand for Arbitration" (available on its website), paying a filing fee, and mailing a copy of the Demand for Arbitration to the opposing party. If You commence the arbitration, You must send a copy to AWR at P.O. Box 4950 Naperville, IL 60567-4950, ATTN: ARBITRATION OF DISPUTE. If AWR commences the arbitration, AWR must send a copy to the email address associated with Your account and any billing address You have provided to us.

iii. If multiple arbitrations involving similar claims against AWR are pending, You and AWR shall jointly petition the AAA to coordinate those matters to promote efficiency. That coordination may include, for example, having similar matters assigned to the same arbitrator (either for all purposes or for the purpose of deciding an issue that turns on the same factual or legal questions) or having pre-hearing discovery apply to multiple matters. Nothing in this paragraph, however, provides any right or authority for a Dispute to be resolved as part of a class action, collective action, or other representative action. (See Section 26(G), below.)

iv. If more than twenty-five (25) arbitrations involving similar claims against AWR have been commenced, the AAA shall designate ten cases—either as selected by the parties or, if the parties cannot agree, as selected by the AAA—to proceed first in a bellwether arbitration, with a single filing fee due for the bellwether proceeding, as if it were a single arbitration. The remaining cases shall not be accepted for filing, and no filing fee shall be due, until the first ten have been resolved and the parties inform the AAA whether there is a global resolution. If the parties have been unable to reach a global resolution, they shall proceed to arbitrate a second set of ten cases; as with the first set of cases, a single filing fee shall be due for the second (and, if necessary, each subsequent) set of cases to be arbitrated. This process shall continue until the parties are able to resolve all claims, either through settlement or arbitration.

v. Unless You and AWR agree otherwise, an arbitration will be conducted by a single arbitrator and any hearing will take place in the county where You reside.

vi. The arbitrator will issue a written decision that explains the essential findings and conclusions. The arbitrator's award may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction only as necessary to enforce the award.

vii. Neither the fact nor the substance of any settlement demand, offer, or negotiation may be revealed to the arbitrator before a final award has been issued.

D. Right to Arbitral Fees and Costs. The payment of the AAA's fees and costs will be governed by the AAA Rules except as follows:

i. If AWR commences an arbitration, AWR will pay all of the AAA's fees and costs.

ii. If You commence an arbitration and state under penalty of perjury that You cannot afford to pay the AAA filing fee, AWR will pay the filing fee if the AAA does not waive that fee. If AWR determines that Your representation regarding Your ability to pay was false, however, it may seek to recover that fee from You.

iii. If You commence an arbitration and the aggregate value of Your claim is less than $10,000, (a) You will only be responsible for paying the lesser of the AAA filing fee or the filing fee that You would have paid in the small claims court in the county where you reside, and (b) AWR will pay the rest of the AAA's fees and costs. If AWR has received more than twenty-five (25) Demands for Arbitration asserting similar claims, however, the payment of the AAA's fees and costs will be governed by the AAA Rules.

iv. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if more than twenty-five (25) arbitrations involving similar claims by or against AWR are pending, filing fees will be assessed only at the time specified in Section 27(C)(v);

v. No matter who commences an arbitration, if the arbitrator finds that a claim was frivolous or asserted for an improper purpose, the party asserting the claim will reimburse the other party for any fees and costs that the party asserting the claim would have been obligated to pay under the AAA Rules; and

vi. No matter who commences an arbitration, You may pay up to half of the AAA's fees and costs if You wish to do so.

E. Right to Attorneys' Fees and Costs. You may hire attorneys to represent You in arbitration. You are responsible for their fees and costs. You may recover them from AWR to the same extent as in court. If the arbitrator finds that a claim was frivolous or brought for an improper purpose, the other party may recover its attorneys' fees and costs to the same extent as in court.

F. Effect of Rejecting Settlement Offers. If the outcome of a legal action is less favorable to the party seeking relief than a settlement offer that party rejected, that party must pay all of the fees and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the other party after the offer was made.

G. Waiver of Class Actions.
